Volunteer Of The Year

Congratulations to Erika Barrows, the 2012 Volunteer of the Year! Erika has been a committed volunteer with the Rogue Valley Manor and Rogue Valley community for 16 years. We will be honoring Mrs. Barrows on May 21st during the Residents' Council meeting!

May Residents' Council Meeting

The May Residents' Council meeting will be especially important as we will be electing officers for the next year. Also, our speaker will be Ron Kramer, who is head of the JPR Foundation. Ron will have a visual presentation on the new Holly Theater that will open soon in downtown Medford. Come and bring your questions for Ron on Monday May 21, 2012 at 9:30 a.m. in the Auditorium.

Breakfast, Lunch, and Sunday Evening Dress Code

From the Resident Handbook: Casual dress, which is appropriate at breakfast, lunch, and Sunday evening buffet, might best be defined as the following: short or long-sleeved shirts, khaki pants or shorts with zipper and buttons, neat appearing jeans, and tennis shoes with socks. Slippers, flip-flops, and other kinds of workout attire, i.e., jogging shorts, and tank tops are unsuitable. Residents should take care to wear items that will not make others feel uncomfortable, such as unkempt or revealing attire. Casual dress is

Manor Sale Needs Volunteers

The Manor Sale still has needs for volunteers in several key departments where veterans have retired. These are: Security (Pete Funch x6173 or Tom Haas x6218); Small Appliances (Merl Isaak x6847 or Gale Goyins x6866); and Poster Distribution (Dick Holcom x6921). The volunteer sign-up books are still available at both the Manor and the Plaza front desks.

Landscaping & Supplies

The RVM Grounds staff is more than happy to apply bark mulch, compost, or topsoil to flower beds or other areas as needed. Please utilize the Manor's work order system for these requests rather than accessing the areas where these items are stored on your own after working hours. Some of these storage area surfaces are rocky, sloped, and have uneven surfaces which could result in a fall or mishap. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Homes Under Renovation

For your safety, please do not enter homes under renovation. Each time a person enters a construction area all construction must come to a halt to protect the visitors from machinery, fumes, and uneven flooring. Continuous visitations are causing delays in our renovation schedules. If you are interested in one of the homes under construction, please contact the Marketing office at x7214 for a tour at a safe time. Thank you.
